1.1 Activities Overview.

On 9th September 1967, a local ecumenical project was launched as the Church of England partnered with the Methodist Church. For many years the Church of Unity served the estate and had a significant impact upon the lives of children and young people.

Unfortunately, as the years passed, the church started to decline in numbers. There was a great need for more workers to help re-build and strengthen the church. As work began to bring new life to the Church of Unity, God was at work calling men and women to mission on the Ramsden Estate. Alongside this, an exciting new partnership between the Anglican Church and Newfrontiers (a charismatic family of churches) was being organised.

On 3rd June 2012, Unity Church was launched under a Bishop's Mission Order. This new church was comprised of the original Church of Unity congregation plus Christians from primarily Christ Church Orpington and Hope Church Orpington.

Since then, God has done so much. People have come to know Jesus as their Lord and Saviour. Many children and young people have found a place where they are valued and cared for. Those who are struggling with food-poverty are receiving practical help and support through the Community Fridge project. The once tired-looking building is being improved and updated. And God has amazed us with His provision.

Each Sunday there are activities for children during the morning meeting. We also run various ministries during the week which are attended by adults who may also bring their children. Our Get Active project will include fitness sessions for older children after school.

1.2 Our Safeguarding Commitment

Unity Church is committed to providing a safe and caring environment for children, young people and adults with care and support needs. We acknowledge that children, young people and adults with care and support needs are at higher risk of physical, sexual and emotional abuse plus neglect.

We accept the United Nations (UN) Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenant of Human Rights, which states that everyone is entitled to “all the rights and freedoms set forth therein, without distinction of any kind, such as race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status”.

We also concur with the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child which states that children should be able to develop their full potential, free from hunger and want, neglect and abuse. They have a right to be protected from “all forms of physical or mental violence, injury or abuse, neglect or negligent treatment or exploitation, including sexual abuse, while in the care of parent(s), legal guardian(s), or any other person who has care of the child.”

The Leadership and Trustees have therefore adopted the procedures set out in this safeguarding policy in accordance with statutory guidance. We are committed to build constructive links with statutory and voluntary agencies involved in safeguarding.

Please refer to Appendix 1 for our commitment statement in our Safeguarding Policy Statement.

The policy and any attached practice guidelines are based on thirtyone:eight’s safeguarding guidance. (Charity number: 1004490), a charity established to support safeguarding work in churches.

The Leadership and Trustees undertake to:

- Follow statutory denominational and specialist guidelines in relation to safeguarding children and adults and will ensure that as a place of worship/organisation all workers will work within the agreed procedure of our safeguarding policy.
- Implementing the requirements of all relevant legislation including, but not limited to; Working Together to Safeguard Children 2018, the Disability Discrimination Acts 1995 and 2005, Equality Act 2010 and referring concerns about adults with care and support needs to the local authority under the Care Act 2014.
- Supporting, resourcing and training those who undertake this work.
- Ensuring that we are keeping up to date with national and local developments relating to safeguarding.
- Ensuring that everyone agrees to abide by these recommendations and the guidelines established by this place of worship/organisation.
- Supporting all in the place of worship/organisation affected by abuse.

Unity Church will adhere strictly to the guidelines laid out by the Government and 31:8 in respect to the safeguarding and checking procedures for DBS certificates and all applications will be made through the church DBS Officer.

Section 2 – Definitions

2.1 Understanding Abuse and Neglect

Defining child abuse or abuse against an adult is a difficult and complex issue. A person may abuse by inflicting harm or failing to prevent harm. Children and adults in need of protection may be abused within a family, an institution, or a community setting. Very often the abuser is known or in a trusted relationship with the child or adult.

In order to safeguard those in our places of worship and organisations we adhere to the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child and have as our starting point as a definition of abuse, Article 19 which states:

1. Parties shall take all appropriate legislative, administrative, social and educational measures to protect the child from all forms of physical or mental violence, injury or abuse, neglect or negligent treatment, maltreatment or exploitation, including sexual abuse, while in the care of parent(s), legal guardian(s) or any other person who has the care of the child.

2. Such protective measures should, as appropriate, include effective procedures for the establishment of social programmes to provide necessary support for the child and for those who have the care of the child, as well as for other forms of prevention and for identification, reporting, referral, investigation, treatment and follow-up of instances of child maltreatment described heretofore, and, as appropriate, for judicial involvement.

Also, for adults, the UN Universal Declaration of Human Rights with particular reference to Article 5:
No one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

Detailed definitions, and signs and indicators of abuse, as well as how to respond to a disclosure of abuse, will be included in our safeguarding training and are detailed in Appendix 3.

2.2 Definition of Children and Adults with Care and Support Needs.

Children

Anyone under the age of 18.

Adults with Care and Support Needs

The adult safeguarding duties under the Care Act 2014 apply to an adult, aged 18 or over, who:

1. Has needs for care and support (whether or not the local authority is meeting any of those needs) and;
2. Is experiencing, or at risk of, abuse or neglect; and as a result of those care and support needs is unable to protect themselves from either the risk of, or the experience of abuse or neglect.

Care and support is the mixture of practical, financial and emotional support for adults who need extra help to manage their lives and be independent - including older people, people with a disability or long-term illness, people with mental health problems, and carers.

Care and support include assessment of people's needs, provision of services and the allocation of funds to enable a person to purchase their own care and support. It could include care home, home care, personal assistants, day services, or the provision of aids and adaptations.

If such a person is experiencing, or at risk of, abuse or neglect, then the local authority has a duty to investigate.

Section 3 - Responding to Allegations of Abuse

3.1 First Response

Under no circumstances should a volunteer or worker carry out their own investigation into an allegation or suspicion of abuse. They should follow procedures as below:

- Documenting a concern

The worker or volunteer should make a report of the concern in the following way:

1. The person in receipt of allegations or suspicions of abuse should report concerns as soon as possible using the form found here <https://thirtyoneeight.org/media/z32hdkfg/cause-for-concern-form-1.docx> to

Name: Lydia Taylor-Down (hereafter called the "Safeguarding Co-ordinator")

Tel: 01689 870039 Email: safeguarding@unitychurch.uk

The above is nominated by the Leadership and Trustees to act on their behalf in dealing with the allegation or suspicion of neglect or abuse, including referring the matter on to the statutory authorities.

2. In the absence of the Safeguarding Co-ordinator or, if the suspicions in any way involve the Safeguarding Co-ordinator, then the report should be made to:

Name: Liz Maltman (hereafter the "Deputy")

Tel: 07971 564189 Email: safeguarding@unitychurch.uk

If the suspicions implicate both the Safeguarding Co-ordinator and the Deputy, then the report should be made in the first instance to Thirtyone:eight on Tel: 0303 003 1111 or email helpline@thirtyoneeight.org. Alternatively contact Bromley Children's Social Services, or the MET police by dialling 101. If a child or adult is in immediate danger or threat of significant harm, please call 999.

3. The Safeguarding Co-ordinator should contact the appropriate agency, or they may first ring the 31:8 helpline for advice. They should then contact social services in the area the child or adult lives.

Name of local authority: Bromley

Children's Social Services Tel: 0208 461 7373,7379,7026 Office hours Mon - Fri

Adult Social Services Tel: 0208 461 7777

Out of hours, Children and Adults Tel: 0300 303 8671

Email for Multi Agency Safeguarding Hub (MASH) mash@bromley.gov.uk

Police: Dial 999 in an emergency, if a crime is taking place.

4. The Safeguarding Co-ordinator may need to inform other people depending on the circumstances and/or nature of the concern:

- Chair or Trustee responsible for safeguarding who may need to liaise with the insurance company or the charity commission to report a serious incident.
- Designated officer or LADO (Local Authority Designated Officer) if the allegation concerns a worker or volunteer working with someone under 18.

5. Suspicions must not be discussed with anyone other than those nominated above. A written record of the concerns should be made in accordance with these procedures and kept in a secure place.
6. Whilst allegations or suspicions of abuse will normally be reported to the Safeguarding Co-ordinator, the absence of the Safeguarding Co-ordinator or Deputy should not delay referral to Social Services, the Police or taking advice from 31:8
7. The Leadership and Trustees will support the Safeguarding Co-ordinator/Deputy in their role and accept that any information they may have in their possession will be shared in a strictly limited way on a need-to-know basis.
8. The Leadership and Trustees will consider whether a serious incident report should be made to the Charity Commission in line with the safeguarding guidance for charities.
9. It is, of course, the right of any individual as a citizen to make a direct referral to the safeguarding agencies or seek advice from 31:8 although the Leadership and Trustees hope that members of the place of worship / organisation will use this procedure. If, however, the individual with the concern feels that the Safeguarding Co-ordinator/Deputy has not responded appropriately, or where they have a disagreement with the Safeguarding Co-ordinator(s) as to the appropriateness of a referral, they are free to contact an outside agency directly. We hope by making this statement that the Leadership and Trustees demonstrate its commitment to effective safeguarding and the protection of all those who are vulnerable.
10. The worker or volunteer should not talk to anyone else about the allegations as while complete confidentiality cannot be maintained, the information should be kept to those on a need-to-know basis.

The role of the safeguarding co-ordinator/deputy is to collate and clarify the precise details of the allegation or suspicion and pass this information on to statutory agencies who have a legal duty to investigate.

3.2 Detailed procedures where there is a concern about a child:

3.2.1 Allegations of physical injury, neglect, or emotional abuse.

If a child has a physical injury, a symptom of neglect or where there are concerns about emotional abuse, the Safeguarding Co-ordinator/Deputy will:

- Contact Children's Social Services (31:8) for advice in cases of deliberate injury, if concerned about a child's safety or if a child is afraid to return home.
- Not tell the parents or carers unless advised to do so, having contacted Children's Social Services.
- Seek medical help if needed urgently, informing the doctor of any suspicions.
- For lesser concerns, (e.g., poor parenting), encourage parent/carer to seek help, but not if this places the child at risk of significant harm.
 - Where the parent/carer is unwilling to seek help, offer to accompany them. In cases of real concern, if the parent/carer still fails to act, contact Children's Social Services direct for advice.
- Seek and follow advice given by 31:8 (who will confirm their advice in writing) if unsure whether or not to refer a case to Children's Social Services.

3.2.2 Allegations of sexual abuse

In the event of allegations or suspicions of sexual abuse, the Safeguarding Co-ordinator/Deputy will:

- Contact the Children's Social Services Department Duty Social Worker for children and families or Police Child Protection Team direct. They will NOT speak to the parent/carer or anyone else.
- Seek and follow the advice given by 31:8 if for any reason they are unsure whether or not to contact Children's Social Services/Police. 31:8 will confirm its advice in writing for future reference.

3.3 Detailed procedures where there is a concern that an adult is in need of protection: (This includes suspicions or allegations of abuse or harm including physical, sexual, organisational, financial, discriminatory, neglect, self-neglect, forced marriage, modern slavery, domestic abuse.)

If there is concern about any of the above, the Safeguarding Co-ordinator/Deputy will:

- Contact the Adult Social Care Team who have responsibility under the Care Act 2014 to investigate allegations of abuse. Alternatively, 31:8 can be contacted for advice.
- If the adult is in immediate danger or has sustained a serious injury, contact the Emergency Services, informing them of any suspicions.

If there is a concern regarding spiritual abuse, the Safeguarding Co-ordinator/Deputy will:

- Identify support services for the victim e.g., counselling or other pastoral support
- Contact 31:8 and in discussion with them consider appropriate action with regards to the scale of the concern.

3.3.1 Allegations of abuse against a person who works with children/young people

If an accusation is made against a worker (whether a volunteer or paid member of staff) whilst following the procedure outlined above, the Safeguarding Co-ordinator, in accordance with Local Safeguarding Children Board (LSCB) procedures will:

- Liaise with Children's Social Services in regard to the suspension of the worker.
- Make a referral to a designated officer formerly called a Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO) whose function is to handle all allegations against adults who work with children and young people whether in a paid or voluntary capacity.
- Make a referral to Disclosure and Barring Service for consideration of the person being placed on the barred list for working with children or adults with additional care and support needs. This decision should be informed by the LADO if they are involved.

3.3.2 Allegations of abuse against a person who works with adults with Care and Support Needs

The Safeguarding Co-ordinator will:

- Liaise with Adult Social Services in regards the suspension of the worker
- Make a referral to the DBS following the advice of Adult Social Services

The Care Act places the duty upon Adult Services to investigate situations of harm to adults with care and support needs. This may result in a range of options including action against the person or organisation causing the harm, increasing the support for the carers or no further action if the 'victim' chooses for no further action and they have the capacity to communicate their decision. However, this is a decision for Adult Services to decide and not the church.

3.4 Whistleblowing

Unity Church, Orpington is committed to being open, honest and accountable. It encourages a free and open culture in its dealings between the trustees, directors, staff members, volunteers or other associate. This policy aims to help individuals in any of these groups to raise any serious concerns they may have about colleagues or their employer with confidence and without having to worry about being victimised, discriminated against or disadvantaged in any way as a result.

It is written in the context of the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 which protects employees who 'blow the whistle' on malpractices within their organisation.

Whistleblowing, or public interest disclosure, is when a worker reports a concern about the improper actions or omissions of their colleagues or their employer which may cause harm to others or to the organisation. Obvious examples of such improper actions include theft, fraud, abuse, breaches of health & safety. The disclosure should be made 'in good faith'. In other words, the disclosure must be made out of real concern about wrongdoing. Knowingly and maliciously making false accusations for ulterior motives is not whistleblowing. The whistle-blower should reasonably believe the information and allegation is substantially true, even if the information later turns out to have been incorrect.

Whistleblowing is not the same as making a complaint or raising a grievance, where the individual is saying that they have personally been poorly treated. A whistle-blower is usually not directly or personally affected by the concern and therefore rarely has a direct personal interest in the outcome of any investigation into their concerns. The whistle-blower raises the concern so that others can address it.

The full policy is stated in Appendix 7

Section 4 - Prevention

4.1 Safer Recruitment

The Leadership and Trustees will ensure all workers will be appointed, trained, supported and supervised in accordance with government guidance on safe recruitment. This includes ensuring that the following procedure is followed:

1. A brief written description of the role will be given to the applicant. Appendix 5 has a list of these roles.
2. An application form will be given to and completed by those applying for the post, and a self-declaration form will be given to them by the appropriate ministry head.
3. An interview of the applicant will be undertaken by the appropriate ministry head. If there is a short list, those short listed will all be interviewed.
4. Safeguarding will be discussed at the interview.
5. Written references are to be obtained, and followed up, where appropriate, by the Safeguarding Trustee.
6. A disclosure and barring check is to be completed, where necessary, by the DBS Officer, once she has been given the completed Self-Declaration form.
7. Suitable training is to be provided for the successful applicant, if the post requires it.
8. If it is a paid position, the applicant shall complete a probationary period.
9. The applicant is to be given a copy of the organisation's Safeguarding Policy Statement and asked to read the full safeguarding policy published on the church website. They must be made aware of how to report any safeguarding concerns. A copy of the Vision and Values of the church will be given to them.
10. Basic Awareness Safeguarding training should be completed before starting in the role.

4.2 Training

The Leadership and Trustees are committed to on-going safeguarding training for themselves and for all workers, developing a culture of awareness of safeguarding issues to help protect everyone. They will undertake recognised safeguarding training on a regular basis. Each person will be asked to agree with the church's Vision and Values (Appendix 4) as this is the basis on which all activities in the church are conducted.

The Leadership and Trustees will also ensure that children and adults with care and support needs are provided with information on where to get help and advice in relation to abuse, discrimination, bullying or any other matter where they have a concern.

Those receiving regular (every 2 years, minimum) training will be:

- All Leadership and Trustees and administrative staff
- All members of children's teams (voluntary or paid)
- All members of youth teams (voluntary or paid)
- All volunteers working with adults with care and support needs

4.3 Ratio Guidelines

4.3.1 Recommended adult-to-child ratios (working with children)

We will always have at least two adults present when working with or supervising children and young people. We should follow adult to child ratios as the minimum numbers to help keep children safe:

0 - 2 years - one adult to three children

2 - 3 years - one adult to four children

4 - 8 years - one adult to six children

9 - 12 years - one adult to eight children

13 - 18 years - one adult to ten children

At least two adults must always be present, even with smaller groups. If young people are helping to supervise younger children, only people aged 18 or over can be included as adults when calculating adult to child ratios.

4.3.2 Toilet ratios (working with children)

Parents/carers should be encouraged to ensure their children have been to the toilet before bringing them to the group. If a child needs the toilet our guidelines are for the parent/carer to come and collect the child. If this cannot happen, then we follow strict DBS guidelines, namely two DBS checked adults accompany all trips to the toilet. In situations where a child needs help, the cubicle door must be left open. Adults who haven't previously volunteered and haven't had the necessary vetting checks shouldn't be left alone with children or take them to the toilet unaccompanied.

Section 5 - Pastoral Care

5.1 Supporting those affected by abuse

The Leadership and Trustees is committed to offering pastoral care, working with statutory agencies as appropriate, and support to all those who have been affected by abuse who have contact with or are part of the church.

Depending on the severity of a situation there are different levels of pastoral care required for different cases. It is also important to realise that every person is different, and we must treat each situation that arises on an individual basis. Our pastoral care is provided through our Pastoral Care Team and were deemed necessary, leadership staff. If additional professional care or advice was required, we would seek care from a professional (for example, recommending that they discuss with a doctor, or counsellors).

5.2 Our pastoral care will include:

Regular phone or text contact with the church family to see how people are in cases of illness or other family issues.

Provision of support for those in need.

Meeting up for a chat to encourage each other.

Arranging home visits to those who are not able to get out very often.

There will always be other types of contact and care given to the church family as matters arise.

5.3 Working with adults who may pose a risk

When someone attending the place of worship is known to have abused children, is under investigation or is known to be a risk to adults with care and support needs, the Leadership and Trustees will supervise the individual concerned and offer pastoral care. But in its safeguarding commitment to the protection of children and adults, strong, carefully considered boundaries will be outlined clearly for that person, who will be expected to keep them. These boundaries will be based on an appropriate risk assessment and through consultation with appropriate parties. (Resources for dealing with someone who poses a risk are held by the Safeguarding Co-ordinator)

Section 6 - Practice & Guidelines

As a place of worship working with children, young people and adults with care and support needs, we wish to operate and promote good working practice. This will enable workers to run activities safely, develop good relationships and minimise the risk of false accusation.

6.1 Codes of Conduct and Practice Guidelines for Workers

As a Leadership and Trustees, we are committed to supporting all workers and ensuring they receive support and supervision. All workers will be asked to read the codes of conduct towards children, young people, and adults with care and support needs.

We have the following guidance documents in Appendix 2.

- Guidelines for working with and caring for children
- Guidelines for working with and caring for youth
- Guidelines for working with and caring for adults with care and support needs.
- Relationship building and boundaries
- Guidelines for managing those adults who may pose a risk

Good practice guidelines for our activities are as follows:

- Duty of Care. Duty of care is in part exercised through the development of respectful and caring relationships, but also by workers taking all reasonable steps to ensure the safety and well-being of those they have responsibility for, particularly in relation to sexual, physical and emotional abuse. Before individuals start working with children, young people and adults with care and support needs, they need to understand and acknowledge the responsibilities and trust inherent to their role. Workers will complete a general application form and be subject to DBS checks.

- Positions of Trust - All adults working with children, young people and adults with care and support needs are in positions of trust. It is therefore vital workers ensure they do not, even unwittingly, use their position of power and authority inappropriately and ensure boundaries are exercised.

• Data Protection, Human Rights and Safeguarding - All personal data is confidential. Where disclosing information might place a child, young person or vulnerable adult at risk, then safeguarding considerations take precedence over data protection. Children, young people and adults with care and support needs have the right to be protected from harm and therefore information relating to concerns that a child, or any other vulnerable person, is at risk of significant harm should not be withheld on the basis that it might be unlawful.

• Anti-bullying Policy and Practice (Children & Young People) - If bullying does occur, children and leaders are able to report the matter and it can be dealt with promptly and effectively. There can be an expectation that anyone who knows that bullying is happening will report it.

• Information Communications Technology (ICT) and E-Safety - E-safety stands for electronic safety; it is not just about keeping safe on the internet, but also keeping safe on all electronic devices such as mobile phones, games consoles, use of e - mails, social networking and other information communications technologies (ICT). Any inappropriate content is to be reported. (See ThinkUKnow.co.uk for more information).

• Peer - group Activities (children and young people) - All peer-group activities will be overseen by named adults who have been selected in accordance with agreed recruitment procedures and have the backing of the leadership of the organisation.

• Risk Assessments - Taking care of children, young people and adults with care and support needs always involves taking responsibility for their well-being, being prepared for unforeseen eventualities, anticipating situations where they could be harmed and taking steps to minimise the risks.

6.2 Working in Partnership with another organisation.

We will discuss with all close partners our safeguarding expectations and have a partnership agreement for safeguarding. It is also our expectation that any legally registered organisation using our premises, as part of a letting agreement, will have their own safeguarding policy and procedures and standards.

We believe good communication is essential in promoting safeguarding, both to those we wish to protect, to everyone involved in working with children and adults and to all those with whom we work in partnership. This safeguarding policy is just one means of promoting safeguarding.

6.3 The steps we are taking to promote safeguarding includes:

- Displaying the 31:8 helpline number in the church.
- Discussing our policy with our Leadership Team and Trustees and group leaders.
- Ongoing safeguarding training for all our trustees, staff, leaders, and volunteers, as relevant.

Section 7 – Adoption of this policy

This policy was agreed by the Leadership and Trustees and will be reviewed annually.

THE AIM: TO PROVIDE A SAFE AND CREATIVE ENVIRONMENT FOR CHILDREN TO ENCOUNTER JESUS FOR THEMSELVES, IF THEY WISH; TO LEARN ABOUT THE BIBLE AND PRAYER, AND PRAY WITH ONE ANOTHER, IF THEY WISH; TO BE PART OF A CARING GROUP AND DEVELOP GOOD FRIENDSHIPS.

At Unity Church we want to be exercising best practice at all times to safeguard the welfare of both the children AND the team. Having a well thought-through policy is essential. Doing so conveys that we value the children in our care and seek their protection, safety, and wellbeing at all times. Therefore, please be mindful of the following principles:

1. Please ensure you know exactly what your area of responsibility is. Please ask your Team Leader any questions you may have about the practicalities of your role and your specific role during each session.
2. Create a fun and friendly atmosphere for children so they can experience God, have a fun time and feel safe. As much as possible try to be enthusiastic, friendly to all children as you are their role models.

Hold back on your judgements but let your Ministry Team Leader or the Safeguarding Co-Ordinator know any safeguarding concerns you have about any particular child/children.
4. If you have any safeguarding concerns, they need to be kept confidential and should not be discussed with parents or other church members.
5. Follow guidelines on responding to the possibility of abuse. Please read our Safeguarding Policy for more information about this. It can be found on the website www.unitychurch.uk/safeguarding.

These are guidelines only. However, they are intended to make rooms safe and manageable for the team.

7. Do not take photographs of any child unless specifically asked to do so and have their parent's or carer's consent.
8. Good Practice guidance

Safeguarding - Appendix 2.c.

Guidelines for working with and caring for adults with care and support needs at Unity Church, Orpington

Adults with Care and Support Needs

The adult safeguarding duties under the Care Act 2014 apply to an adult, aged 18 or over, who:

3. Has needs for care and support (whether or not the local authority is meeting any of those needs) and;
4. Is experiencing, or at risk of, abuse or neglect; and as a result of those care and support needs is unable to protect themselves from either the risk of, or the experience of abuse or neglect.

Care and support is the mixture of practical, financial and emotional support for adults who need extra help to manage their lives and be independent - including older people, people with a disability or long-term illness, people with mental health problems, and carers.

Care and support include assessment of people's needs, provision of services and the allocation of funds to enable a person to purchase their own care and support. It could include care home, home care, personal assistants, day services, or the provision of aids and adaptations

At Unity Church we want to care for adults with care and support needs who attend our ministries. In doing so we are committed to the safeguarding of adults and ensuring their wellbeing. Our responsibility as trustees, leaders and team members is to partner with each other as we seek to protect all those entrusted to our care. Please therefore be mindful of the following principles and guidelines:

- 1. Dignity and Respect - Ensure that all adults with care and support needs are treated with dignity and respect in attitude, language and actions.
- 2. No Photos - Do not take photographs of any adults with care and support needs unless specifically asked to and have theirs and/or their carers consent.
- 3. Behaviour and Discipline - It is important that we treat all adults with care and support needs equally. If there is an issue such as swearing, racism or destructive behaviour they can be escorted away from the area where the disruption is occurring and asked to stop.

If physical restraint has been necessary, the team members involved should always record what happened in writing as soon as possible after the incident.

The report should include:

- What activity was taking place
- What might have caused the disruptive behaviour
- The person's behaviour
- What was said and how the team member and others responded
- A list of others who were present who witnessed the incident

If an incident occurs involving an adult with care and support needs, who has a carer, the carer should be informed.

- 4. Taking care of touching – Keep everything public. Touch should be age-appropriate and normally instigated by the adult with care and support needs rather than the team member.

Avoid any physical activity that may be sexually stimulating. All adults with care and support needs are entitled to personal privacy and the right to decide how much physical contact they have with others, except in circumstances such as a medical emergency.

Team members should monitor one another in the area of physical contact. They should be free to help each other by constructively challenging anything which could be misunderstood or misconstrued.

5. Effective Listening – If you believe an adult with care and support needs, needs to talk about a potential abuse situation, ensure the physical environment is welcoming, giving opportunity for the adult with care and support needs to talk in private but making sure others are aware that conversation is taking place.

- It is especially important to allow time and space for the person to talk.
- Above everything else listen without interrupting.
- Be attentive and look at them whilst they are speaking.
- Show acceptance of what they say (however unlikely the story may sound) by reflecting back words or short phrases they have used.
- Try to remain calm even if on the inside you are feeling something different.
- Be honest and don't make promises you can't keep regarding confidentiality.
- If they decide not to tell you after all, accept their decision but let them know that you are always ready to listen.
- Use language that is age appropriate if possible, ensure there is someone available who understands sign language, Braille etc, if that is required.

Helpful Responses:

- You have done the right thing in telling me.
- I am glad you have told me.
- I will try to help you.

Don't say:

- Why didn't you tell anyone before?
- I can't believe it!
- Are you sure this is true?
- Why? How? When? Who? Where?
- I am shocked, don't tell anyone else

6. Specific Guidance - Please adhere to all the guidance issued by Unity Church regarding conduct with adults with care and support needs, for example guidelines for relationship building and boundaries, overnight stays or travel in private cars.

Safeguarding - Appendix 3
Unity Church, Orpington
Abuse Types and Signs and Symptoms of Abuse

1. Types of Abuse (children)

Children

Child protection legislation throughout the UK is based on the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child. Each nation within the UK has incorporated the convention within its legislation and guidance.

The four definitions of abuse below operate in England based on the government guidance 'Working Together to Safeguard Children (2010)'.

What is abuse and neglect?

Abuse and neglect are forms of maltreatment of a child. Somebody may abuse or neglect a child by inflicting harm, or by failing to act to prevent harm. Children may be abused in a family or in an institutional or community setting, by those known to them or, more rarely, by a stranger for example, via the internet. They may be abused by an adult or adults, or another child or children.

Physical abuse

Physical abuse may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scalding, drowning, suffocating, or otherwise causing physical harm to a child. Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer fabricates the symptoms of, or deliberately induces, illness in a child.

Emotional abuse

Emotional abuse is the persistent emotional maltreatment of a child such as to cause severe and persistent adverse effects on the child's emotional development.

It may involve conveying to children that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate, or valued only insofar as they meet the needs of another person. It may include not giving the child opportunities to express their views, deliberately silencing them or 'making fun' of what they say or how they communicate. It may feature age or developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on children. These may include interactions that are beyond the child's developmental capability, as well as overprotection and limitation of exploration and learning, or preventing the child participating in normal social interaction. It may involve seeing or hearing the ill-treatment of another. It may involve serious bullying (including cyber bullying), causing children frequently to feel frightened or in danger, or the exploitation or corruption of children. Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of maltreatment of a child, though it may occur alone.

Sexual abuse

Sexual abuse involves forcing or enticing a child or young person to take part in sexual activities, not necessarily involving a high level of violence, whether or not the child is aware of what is happening. The activities may involve physical contact, including assault by penetration (for example, rape or oral sex) or non-penetrative acts such as masturbation, kissing, rubbing and touching outside of clothing. They may also include non-contact activities, such as involving children in looking at, or in the production of, sexual images, sexting, watching sexual activities, encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways, or grooming a child in preparation for abuse (including via the internet). Sexual abuse is not solely perpetrated by adult males. Women can also commit acts of sexual abuse, as can other children.

Neglect

Neglect is the persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and/or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's health or development. Neglect may occur during pregnancy as a result of maternal substance abuse. Once a child is born, neglect may involve a parent or carer failing to:

- provide adequate food, clothing and shelter (including exclusion from home or abandonment)
- protect a child from physical and emotional harm or danger
- ensure adequate supervision (including the use of inadequate caregivers) or
- ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment.

It may also include neglect of, or unresponsiveness to, a child's basic emotional needs.

2. Types of Abuse (Adults with Care and Support needs)

Abuse may consist of a single act or repeated acts. It may be physical, verbal or psychological, it may be an act of neglect or an omission to act, or it may occur when a person in a vulnerable position is persuaded to enter into a financial or sexual transaction to which he or she has not consented or cannot consent. Abuse can occur in any relationship and may result in significant harm to, or exploitation of, the person subjected to it.

The following definitions are from the Thirtyone:eight guidance and the statutory guidance for the Care Act 2014:

Physical Abuse

This is the infliction of pain or physical injury, which is either caused deliberately, or through lack of parental care, including assault, hitting, slapping, pushing, misuse of medication, restraint or inappropriate physical sanctions.

Sexual Abuse

This is the involvement in sexual activities to which the person has not consented or does not truly comprehend and so cannot give informed consent, or where the other party is in a position of trust, power or authority and uses this to override or overcome lack of consent. This includes rape, indecent exposure, sexual harassment, inappropriate looking or touching, sexual teaching or innuendo, requesting sexual photography, sexting, subjection to pornography or witnessing sexual acts, sexual assault or sexual acts to which the adult has not consented or was pressured into consenting.

Psychological or Emotional Abuse

These are acts or behaviour, which either cause mental distress or anguish, or negates the wishes of the vulnerable adult. It is also behaviour that has a harmful effect on the vulnerable adult's emotional health and development or any other form of mental cruelty. This includes emotional abuse, threats of harm or abandonment, deprivation of contact, humiliation, blaming, controlling, intimidation, coercion, harassment, verbal abuse, cyber bullying, isolation, unreasonable and unjustified withdrawal of services or supportive networks.

Financial or Material Abuse

This is the inappropriate use, misappropriation, embezzlement or theft of money, property or possessions. This includes theft, fraud, internet scanning, coercion in relation to an adult's financial affairs or arrangements, including in connection with wills, property, inheritance or financial transactions, the misuse or misappropriation of property, possessions, or benefits.

Modern Slavery

This is slavery, human trafficking, forced labour and domestic servitude. Traffickers and slave masters using whatever means they have at their disposal to coerce, deceive, and force individuals in a life of abuse, servitude and inhumane treatment.

Neglect or Act of Omission

This is the repeated deprivation of assistance that the adult needs for important activities of daily living, including the failure to intervene in behaviour which is dangerous to the adult or to others. A person may be suffering from neglect when their general wellbeing or development is impaired. This includes ignoring medical, emotional or physical needs, failure to provide access to appropriate health, care and support or educational services and the withholding of the necessities of life, such as medication, adequate nutrition and heating.

Discriminatory Abuse

This is the inappropriate treatment of an adult because of their age, gender, race, religion, cultural background, sexuality, disability etc. Discriminatory abuse exists when values, beliefs or culture result in a misuse of power that denies opportunity to some groups or individuals. Discriminatory abuse links to all other forms of abuse.

Institutional or Organisational Abuse

This is the mistreatment or abuse of an adult by a regime or individuals within an institution (e.g. hospital or care home) or in the community. It can be through repeated acts of poor or inadequate care and neglect, or poor professional practice. It may range from one off incidents to on-going ill-treatment. It can be through neglect or poor professional practice as a result of the structure, policies, processes and practices within the organisation.

Self-Neglect

This covers a wide range of behaviour neglecting to care for one's personal hygiene, health or surroundings and includes behaviour such as hoarding.

3. Further Types of Abuse (Children and Adults with care and support needs)

Significant Harm

This relates to the degree of harm that triggers statutory action to protect a child. It is based on the individual child's health or development compared to that which could reasonably be expected of a similar child, e.g. severity of ill treatment, degree and extent of physical harm, duration and frequency of abuse and neglect, premeditation. The Department of Health guidance suggests that 'significant' means 'considerable, noteworthy or important'.

Children in Whom Illness is Fabricated or Induced (formerly known as Munchausen's Syndrome by Proxy)

This is a form of child abuse in which the parents or carers give false accounts of symptoms in their children and may fake signs of illness (to draw attention to themselves). They seek repeated medical investigations and needless treatment for their children. The government guidance on this is found in 'Safeguarding Children in whom Illness is Fabricated or Induced' (2002).

Spiritual Abuse

Linked with emotional abuse, spiritual abuse could be defined as an abuse of power, often done in the name of God or religion, which involves manipulating or coercing someone into thinking, saying or doing things without respecting their right to choose for themselves. Some indicators of spiritual abuse might be a leader who is intimidating and imposes his/her will on other people, perhaps threatening dire consequences or the wrath of God if disobeyed. He or she may say that God has revealed certain things to them and so they know what is right. Those under their leadership are fearful to challenge or disagree, believing they will lose the leader's (or more seriously God's) acceptance and approval.

Domestic Violence

The cross-government definition of domestic violence is: 'any incident or patterns of incidents of controlling, coercive, threatening behaviour, violence or abuse (psychological, physical, sexual, financial or emotional) between those aged 16 or over, who are or have been intimate partners or family members, regardless of gender and sexuality'. The abuse can encompass, but is not limited to psychological, sexual, financial or emotional.

In 2004 the Government's definition of domestic violence was extended to include acts perpetrated by extended family members as well as intimate partners. Consequently, acts such as forced marriage and other so-called 'honour crimes', which can include abduction and homicide, can now come under the definition of domestic violence.

Investigating complex (organised or multiple) abuse

This abuse may be defined as abuse involving one or more abusers and a number of children. The abusers concerned may be acting in concert to abuse children, sometimes acting in isolation, or may be using an institutional framework or position of authority to recruit children for abuse.

Complex abuse occurs both as part of a network of abuse across a family or community, and within institutions such as residential homes or schools.

As well as threats to the welfare of children from within their families, children may be vulnerable to abuse or exploitation from people outside their families. These extra-familial threats might arise at school and other educational establishments, from within peer groups, or more widely from within the wider community and/or online. These threats can take a variety of different forms and children can be vulnerable to multiple threats, including, exploitation by criminal gangs and organised crime groups such as county lines; trafficking, online abuse; sexual exploitation and the influences of extremism leading to radicalisation. Extremist groups often make use of the internet to radicalise and recruit and to promote extremist materials. Any potential harmful effects to individuals identified as vulnerable to extremist ideologies or being drawn into terrorism should also be considered. (Working Together to Safeguard Children 2018, p 22)

Child Sexual Exploitation

The government document "Working Together to Safeguard Children" (2018, p 103) states:

Child sexual exploitation is a form of child sexual abuse. It occurs when an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, manipulate or deceive a child or young person under the age of 18 into sexual activity (a) in exchange for something the victim needs or wants, and/or (b) for the financial advantage or increased status of the perpetrator or facilitator. The victim may have been sexually exploited even if the sexual activity appears consensual. Child sexual exploitation does not always involve physical contact; it can also occur through the use of technology.

County Lines

As set out in the Serious Violence Strategy, published by the Home Office, a term used to describe gangs and organised criminal networks involved in exporting illegal drugs into one or more importing areas within the UK, using dedicated mobile phone lines or other form of 'deal line'. They are likely to exploit children and vulnerable adults to move and store the drugs and money, and they will often use coercion, intimidation, violence (including sexual violence) and weapons.

Child criminal exploitation

As set out in the Serious Violence Strategy, published by the Home Office, where an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, control, manipulate or deceive a child or young person under the age of 18 into any criminal activity (a) in exchange for something the victim needs or wants, and/or (b) for the financial or other advantage of the perpetrator or facilitator and/or (c) through violence or the threat of violence. The victim may have been criminally exploited even if the activity appears consensual. Child criminal exploitation does not always involve physical contact; it can also occur through the use of technology.

Female Genital Mutilation (FGM) and other honour-based violence

The World Health Organization defines FGM as all procedures involving partial or total removal or stitching up of the female genitalia or other injury to the female genital organs whether for cultural or other non-therapeutic reasons.

The Government document "Working Together (2010)" states:

Female genital mutilation (FGM) is a collective term for procedures which include the removal of part or all of the external female genitalia for cultural or other non-therapeutic reasons. The practice is medically unnecessary, extremely painful and has serious health consequences, both at the time when the mutilation is carried out and in later life. The procedure is typically performed on girls aged between four and thirteen, but in some cases FGM is performed on new born infants or on young women before marriage or pregnancy. A number of girls die as a direct result of the procedure from blood loss or infection, either following the procedure or subsequently in childbirth.

FGM has been a criminal offence in the UK since the Prohibition of Female Circumcision Act 1985 was passed. The Female Genital Mutilation Act 2003 replaced the 1985 Act and made it an offence for UK nationals or permanent UK residents to carry out FGM abroad, or to aid, abet, counsel or procure the carrying out of FGM abroad, even in countries where the practice is legal.

FGM is much more common than most people realise, both worldwide and in the UK. It is reportedly commonly practised in 28 African countries and in parts of the Middle and Far East but is increasingly found in Western Europe and other developed countries, primarily amongst immigrant and refugee communities. There are substantial populations from countries where FGM is endemic in London, Liverpool, Birmingham, Sheffield and Cardiff but it is likely that communities in which FGM is practised reside throughout the UK. It has been estimated that up to 24,000 girls under the age of 15 are at risk of FGM in the UK.

Objectives of this policy:

- All children, leaders, volunteer workers, parents and carers should be aware of the anti-bullying policy within the church and what they should do if bullying arises.
- All leaders and volunteer workers should have an understanding of what bullying is, be aware of possible signs if it is happening and follow the policy when it is reported.

Procedures

- Report the bullying incident to children's leaders.
- Ensure that details are carefully checked before action is taken.
- In all cases of bullying, the incidents should be recorded by the worker.
- Consideration should be given to informing the parents/carers of the bully, but this should only be done if workers are satisfied there is no bullying/abuse going on at home that might exacerbate the situation
- If it is thought that an offence has been committed, the Safeguarding Coordinator should be informed, and consideration should be given to contacting the Police.
- The bullying behaviour or threats of bullying must be investigated and stopped quickly.

Cyberbullying

These days bullying doesn't just happen in the playground.

Cyberbullying – or bullying via digital technologies like mobile phones and computers – is a different threat to children. It can be harder to spot and more difficult to stop than 'traditional' bullying but understanding the dangers can help keep children safe.

What's different about Cyberbullying?

Cyberbullying is different to other forms of bullying because:

- It can occur anytime, anywhere – the victim can even receive bullying messages or materials at home
- The audience to the bullying can be large and reached very quickly and easily if messages are passed around or things are posted online
- It can be unintentional – people may not think about the consequences of sending messages or images

Characteristics of Cyber Bullying

- Anonymous – cyber abusers can use the internet using pseudonyms
- Accessibility - cyber bullies can approach their victims at any time
- Loss of inhibition – the anonymity of the internet can encourage cyber bullies to commit acts which they might otherwise do in person.

Ways of Cyberbullying

The most common ways of cyberbullying are through:

- Video chat apps, chat rooms, blogs and forums – although many of these are moderated, people involved in discussions can be sent abusive responses
- Text messaging – abusive and threatening texts can be sent to mobile phones
- Abusive or prank phone calls – these can be made to a child's mobile phone
- Picture and video clip messaging – offensive images can be sent to mobile phones
- Email – new addresses can be set up in minutes and used to send offensive messages and images
- Social networking and messaging apps (like Omegle, Facebook, WhatsApp) – offensive or humiliating messages and images can be posted on these sites
- Identity theft – in many cyber environments fake profiles can be set up pretending to be someone else with the aim of bullying others
- Instant message services – quicker than email, these allow users to have 'real time' conversations, and offensive messages or content can be sent in this way
- Webcams – usually used to view each other when chatting online, children can also be sent abusive images or encouraged to act in an inappropriate way while being filmed
- Video chat apps (like ooVoo) – children may find themselves the subject of films being shown (e.g. what is wrongly called 'happy slapping') or be accidentally exposed to pornographic images
- Gaming sites, consoles and virtual worlds – chatting is possible within many games, and name-calling, abusive remarks and picking on particular players can occur

Protecting Children from Cyberbullying

As with other types of bullying it's important for you to listen to children and react with sympathy. You should let children know that bullying is always wrong, and that seeking help is the right thing to do. It's important for them to learn to respect and look after their friends online and to think before they post or text.

To help keep children safe you can:

- Encourage them to talk to you or another adult about anything that's upsetting them
- Watch out for them seeming upset after using the internet or their mobile phone
- Try to understand the ways in which they are using their digital technologies
- Ask them to think about how their actions affect other users
- Suggest that they only use moderated chat rooms
- Encourage them to show you any abusive or offensive emails or messages they've received and keep a record of them
- Help them report any abuse to their internet service provider, the website manager/moderator, the mobile phone company or the Police
- Tell them never to respond to any abusive messages or calls
- Discuss keeping their passwords safe and avoiding giving their name, email address or mobile phone number to people outside their circle of friends and family
- Change email address or telephone number if the abuse continues
- Turn on in-built internet safety features and install computer software to ensure that you only receive emails from people you have chosen and to block unwanted images
- Tell them about places where they can go for help and support like ChildLine, ThinkuKnow, Childnet International.

E-safety in a Church Context

Online Safety definition:

Online safety is the collective term for safeguarding involving the use of electronic devices and applications to communicate and access the Internet; often referred to as Information and Communications Technology. - Additional disciplinary action in line with existing practice on inappropriate language or behaviour.
- Where applicable, police or local authorities may be involved.

Safeguarding Appendix 7 –

Whistleblowing Policy

What is Whistleblowing?

Whistleblowing, or public interest disclosure, is when a worker reports a concern about the improper actions or omissions of their colleagues or their employer which may cause harm to others or to the organisation. Obvious examples of such improper actions include theft, fraud, abuse, breaches of health & safety. The disclosure should be made 'in good faith'. In other words, the disclosure must be made out of real concern about wrongdoing. Knowingly and maliciously making false accusations for ulterior motives is not whistleblowing. The whistle-blower should reasonably believe the information and allegation is substantially true, even if the information later turns out to have been incorrect.

Whistleblowing is not the same as making a complaint or raising a grievance, where the individual is saying that they have personally been poorly treated. A whistle-blower is usually not directly or personally affected by the concern and therefore rarely has a direct personal interest in the outcome of any investigation into their concerns. The whistle-blower raises the concern so that others can address it.

Introduction

Unity Church, Orpington is committed to being open, honest and accountable. It encourages a free and open culture in its dealings between the trustees, directors, staff members, volunteers or other associate. This policy aims to help individuals in any of these groups to raise any serious concerns they may have about colleagues or their employer with confidence and without having to worry about being victimised, discriminated against or disadvantaged in any way as a result.

It is written in the context of the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 which protects employees who 'blow the whistle' on malpractices within their organisation.

Policy Scope

The policy is intended to deal with serious or sensitive concerns about wrongdoings such as the following:

- a criminal offence
- a failure to comply with any legal obligation
- a failure in the protection of children or adults with care and support needs
- a miscarriage of justice
- a health and safety risk to an individual
- damage to the environment
- or concealment of the above.

It is not necessary for individuals who raise the concern to prove the wrongdoing that is alleged to have occurred or is likely to occur. However, if an individual knowingly or maliciously makes an untrue allegation (e.g. in order to cause disruption), Unity Church, Orpington will take appropriate disciplinary action against them. It may constitute gross misconduct. Individuals should note that they will not be protected from the consequences of making a disclosure if, by doing so, they commit a criminal offence.

This policy does not deal with any complaints staff may have about their employment.

How to raise a concern in the workplace

The officer designated to handle whistleblowing concerns is Neil Maltman and shall be known as the Whistleblowing Officer.

If the matter concerns the Whistleblowing Officer, it should be raised with the Trustees/Directors.

Individuals are encouraged to raise their concerns in writing where possible, setting out the background and history of their concerns (giving names, dates and places where possible) and indicating the reasons for their concerns. If any individual is unsure whether to use this procedure or they want independent advice at any stage, they should contact the independent charity, Public Concern at Work's legal helpline on 020 7404 6609, email: helpline@pcaw.co.uk.

Public Concern at Work will be able to advise on how and with whom to raise a concern about malpractice. Disclosures made to a legal advisor in the course of obtaining legal advice will be protected under the Public Interest Disclosure Act.

If the individual reasonably believes that the matter relates wholly or mainly to the conduct of a person or body other than Unity Church, Orpington or any other matter for which a person or body other than Unity Church, Orpington has legal responsibility, the disclosure should be made to that other person or body.

Protecting the individual raising the concern

If an individual raises a concern which they believe to be true, Unity Church, Orpington will take appropriate action to protect the individual from any harassment, victimisation or bullying. Employees who raise a genuine concern under this policy will not be at risk of losing their job, nor will it influence any unrelated disciplinary action or redundancy procedures. The matter will be treated confidentially if the individual requests it. If in other circumstances the concern cannot be resolved without revealing the individual's identity, the Whistleblowing Officer will discuss with the individual whether and how to proceed. Concerns raised anonymously tend to be far less effective but the Whistleblowing Officer will decide whether or not to consider the matter taking into account:

- the seriousness of the matter;
- whether the concern is believable;
- whether an investigation can be carried out based on the information provided.

How Unity Church, Orpington will deal with the concern

How the concern will be dealt with, will depend on what it involves. It is likely that further enquiries and/or investigation will be necessary. The concern may be investigated by Unity Church, Orpington's Whistleblowing Officer or the Trustees/Directors, through the disciplinary process or it may be referred to the police, other agencies such as Social Services, an external auditor or an independent investigator. It may be necessary for the individual to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings. Unity Church, Orpington will give the individual feedback on the progress and outcome of any investigation wherever possible.

If the suspicions are not confirmed by an investigation, the matter will be closed. Staff will not be treated or regarded any differently for raising the concern, and their confidentiality will continue to be protected.
